

Japan is Reopening for Tourism on Oct 11!

© TCVB

Japan is once again welcoming overseas visitors! Starting October 11, Canadian travellers will enjoy visa-free entry, no pre-arrival PCR tests for those who are triple vaccinated, no quarantine periods, and no requirements to book travel through agencies. The daily capacity will be scrapped. Non-vaccinated travellers will still be required to submit a negative PCR test 72 hours prior to their departure for Japan.

- Individual tourists will be able to travel to Japan without joining a guided group tour. They will NOT be required to book flights and accommodation through a travel agency.
- Pre-arrival Covid-19 tests will no longer be needed for fully vaccinated travellers (3 vaccines, which includes a booster).
- Travellers will not need to apply for a visa.
- FITs and backpackers are now allowed to enter Japan for tourism purposes.
- The entry limit into Japan will be scrapped.
