The award-winning luxury hospitality brand, 1 Hotel, opened its newest property, 1 Hotel Tokyo, in Akasaka this March.

Designed with a focus on sustainability and well-being, the hotel blends biophilic design with traditional Japanese craftsmanship. Locally sourced and reclaimed materials are used throughout, alongside energy- and water-efficient systems that reflect the brand's environmental commitments.

From moss-covered stone features to plant-lined walls and a ceiling inspired by the raked patterns of a Zen garden, the space draws on the principles of wabi-sabi, creating a calm, immersive experience rooted in nature.
