Tokyo Crowned Best Workation City for 2025

Looking for a change of scenery? Tokyo has been named the world's best city for a workation in 2025. International Workplace Group's Work from Anywhere Barometer recently announced its 2025 ranking for the best workation cities, and Tokyo came out on top! The global ranking assessed 12 factors, including broadband speed, transportation, climate, workspace availability and access to nature. Tokyo scored 91 out of 120, praised for its fast internet, reliable transportation, safety, and proximity to mountains, coasts and national parks. Japan's new digital nomad visa, introduced in 2024 and allowing stays of up to 6 months, further boosted the city's appeal.
